

America's Credit Unions: Where People Are Worth More Than Money.

PBA Members are Now Eligible for PSECU Membership!

- free checking service
- free ATM access with their extensive surcharge-free network (see psecu.com/atms for details).
- convenient account access - online, mobile or by self-service telephone - with no fees or monthly charges
- mobile check depositing using your smart phone and our app (restrictions apply)
- free Bill Payer Service
- low loan rates with 30-second loan responses, in most cases
- Federally insured by the National Credit Union Association/Equal Opportunity Lender

Best of all, PSECU looks out for you. Members have peace of mind, knowing PSECU acts in their best interest at all times because they are not-for-profit and member owned.

PBA members who are business owners can also benefit from PSECU's business account services - or may want to provide credit union membership to their employees as a no-cost benefit.

Once PBA members join PSECU, their immediate family and household members can also enjoy the many benefits of credit union membership. To learn more about PSECU, visit psecu.com.
