Welcome to the Pennsylvania Builders Association (PBA) Guide to Leadership at the State Level!

You will find that the return on the investment of your time and resources to become involved at the state level is immeasurable. What you will get back on both a professional and personal level is invaluable. Leadership meets three times a year for board meetings with fellow members who deal with the same issues that you deal with every day. You will find leadership more than willing to share their experiences with you and how they have solved similar problems. You will have the opportunity to help shape policy and programs that will affect members throughout the state.

The PBA Membership Committee has developed a mentoring program to aid your transition to the state level. This guide will help you understand the leadership levels and the purpose of the state association.

OUR CORE PURPOSE
The Pennsylvania Builders Association exists to enhance and improve the ability of Pennsylvania’s building professionals to provide the highest quality housing at the most affordable price.

OUR VISION
To be the association that every building industry professional would strive to be a part of.
The Structure of the Pennsylvania Builders Association

Chartered in 1945, PBA is a statewide, non-profit trade association funded solely by private contributions.

PBA is based in Harrisburg, PA and has a full time staff of six.

PBA is made up of 32 local associations, grouped into 8 regions serving nearly 4,500 members - with about 1/3 comprising of builders and the rest working for organizations and companies that support the home building industry in Pennsylvania. Its members include developers, remodelers, apartment owners, residential and light commercial builders, as well as subcontractors, suppliers, real estate professionals, lending institutions, utilities, manufacturers and others related to the home building industry.

PBA deals with a wide range of government regulations and policies that affect members, their businesses and their customers. PBA provides access to industry experts, as well as information and publications on the latest industry news and trends. Board involvement and award programs give members an opportunity to meet and network with peers from across the state.

Subsidiaries of PBA include Builder Services Inc. (BSI) which manages the revenue generating programs offered to our members, such as the insurance program and the workers compensation program. In addition, the Pennsylvania Foundation for Housing is organized as a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) charitable organization. The Foundation provides an avenue for corporations or individual donors to support educational programs that will help future generations meet the challenges ahead in the Pennsylvania building industry.

Types of Membership

BUILDER MEMBER

Our Builder Members are comprised of the finest builders and remodelers in Pennsylvania. These professionals in the state base their business on quality craftsmanship, a strong work ethic, and a commitment to customer service.

Builder Membership is open to any person, firm, corporation, or company that is, or has been, in the business of building or remodeling homes, apartments, schools, commercial, industrial, or other structures/buildings normally related and appurtenant to a community; or in land development; and who transacts such business primarily in the state.

ASSOCIATE MEMBER

Our Associate Members are made up of the trade contractors, suppliers, and service providers that support the home building industry in Pennsylvania.

Associate Members of the PBA include: architects, banks, cellular phone companies, decorators, suppliers as well as many other businesses that support our membership.

Associate Membership is open to any person, firm, or corporation engaged to any allied trade, industry, or profession other than that of builder/remodeler within the territorial jurisdiction of the state.

AFFILIATE MEMBER

Affiliate Membership is open to any person that is employed by a builder or associate member in good standing; who subscribes to the code of ethics of this Association, and is of good character and business reputation; and who either has been accepted as an affiliate member of an affiliated local association or chapter, or applies as a direct affiliate member of the Pennsylvania Builders Association, is acceptable to the Executive Committee of this Association and who operates in an area not within the jurisdiction of any affiliated local association or chapter. Applies as a direct affiliate member of the Pennsylvania Builders Association, is acceptable to the Executive Committee of this Association and who operates in an area within the jurisdiction of any affiliated local association or chapter that currently does not offer this category of membership.
Getting Active

Any Member can attend a PBA Board Meeting or committee meeting. Virtually all meetings are open to members. Only a call for "Executive Session" will require credentials to attend. Meeting rooms include seating for guests. PBA staff will normally be present at all Board meetings.

To express your interest in joining a committee, please contact the committee chair (listed on page 8), the PBA President, or PBA staff for further information. An annual Committee Appointment Process will take place at the end of each year that allows all PBA members to sign up online to join a committee. All appointments are made at the discretion of the PBA President and Vice President. Members will receive notice of their appointments in January. Further information is available at pabuilders.org or in our weekly E-Newsletter communications.

The following Organizational Chart and Board and Committee Descriptions are a general description of the PBA structure of the association.

In summary, the meeting of the PBA Board is to provide the consumer optimum value for the housing dollar, serve as a pro-active force for positive regulatory and legislative change, be an effective provider of support services to local associations and their members, be the source of the latest industry information, be the source of education and professional development for the industry and maintain a positive image for the industry and the membership.

Descriptions/Responsibilities

STAFF DEPARTMENTS

Chief Executive Officer: Serves as chief administrative officer, recommends and participates in formulation of new policies and makes decisions within the bounds of existing policies. Plans, organizes, directs and coordinates the staff, programs and activities to ensure the association’s goals and objectives are met.

Government Affairs: The Government Affairs division handles all legislative and regulatory initiatives for PBA. It handles all GA task forces as well as the 3 subcommittees created under the GA committee – Industry Action Fund, handling legal cases, Legislative Analysis Subcommittee, handling all non-priority legislation and Regulatory Analysis Subcommittee. The GA division also handles the association’s PAC – Pennsylvania Committee for Affordable Housing (PaCAH).

Communications & Member Services: The Communications & Member Services division creates and distributes all of PBA’s communications initiatives intended to keep members informed, helps members expand and improves their business operations, aids our members’ professional development, supports the work of other PBA divisions, and promotes the image of the housing industry statewide. Staff aides in the organization and implementation of Board meetings, committees, awards, and assists the other departments of PBA in their communicative functions. The Director of Communications & Member Services is the primary liaison for local staff and leadership to provide the resources necessary to effectively promote membership and benefits.

Accounting: Accounting department has responsibility for 4 separate entities which include PBA (non-profit) with additional reporting for the Industry Action Fund; BSI (for-profit); PaCAH (non-profit); PA Foundation for Housing (non-profit). Duties for each entity include A/P, A/R, maintenance of GL and chart of accounts, bank reconciliations, filing of all financial records, inter-co transactions, oversight and prep work for all corresponding audits, lobbying disclosure, campaign finance reporting, payroll and pension functions, issues with copying equipment, and all building-related issues. Accounting departments in builder terms are considered vital to the overall operation and provide the “foundation” for any organization.

Administrative: The administrative staff at the PBA assists and supports each differentiated department with specific duties and inquiries that further productivity and increase efficiency of the Association. It is their duty to be the behind-the-scenes advocates and supporters providing networking needs, document processing and procurement, as well as compiling and researching information to better allow the CEO and others to make wise, educated, and reinforced operational decisions.

Additionally, this department organizes and communicates with PBA committees, local associations, members within these local associations, as well as the general public. Staff answers questions, addresses administrative needs and requirements, and acts as a general point of contact within the PBA.
VOLUNTEER LEADERSHIP

Regional Process

Regional Meetings: Take place no later than three weeks before a board meeting and no sooner than five weeks before a board meeting.

What Goes Out to Regions? PBA will request information from Committee Chairs, Regional Vice Presidents, Senior Officers and staff. These items can include recommendations and motions from committees, flyers on meetings, training or education sessions, fundraisers, receptions, or any other documents pertaining to the upcoming PBA Board meeting.

Feedback to and from PBA: Feedback from the regional meetings is provided from the Action Form and notes submitted with the action form. Once all Action Forms and notes are collected PBA staff drafts At A Glance, which includes all critical information including any motions made, votes casted, topics requested to be discussed at future board meetings, etc. This is distributed prior to the upcoming board meeting to all board members and participants.

Preparing for Caucus: During the caucus meetings, there is a recap of the regional meeting and the region’s position on matters brought to the board floor. This is also the time to review any new information and issues that have come up since the regional meeting was held.
Board of Directors Meetings

Pennsylvania Builders Association holds three Board meetings annually:
   Winter – February/March
   Summer – July/August
   Fall – October/November

Who attends: Senior Officers, Regional Officers, Executive Officers, Presidents, Board of Directors (who are elected at the local level), Life Directors and PBA Past Presidents, or any members interested in observing the process and participating.

How do you get something considered for the Board meeting? See the Regional Process above.

What to Expect: Each board meeting is scheduled to take place Thursday evening through Saturday afternoon. Thursday evening meetings are generally leadership committees (finance, personnel, executive). Following these meetings, there is usually a hospitality suite open to any members that arrive that evening.

Friday encompasses the committee and council meetings, as well as educational seminars that are being presented. Most of these meetings and seminars are open to any member in attendance; you do not have to be a committee member to attend unless otherwise stated. However, all members are encouraged to RSVP.* This is a great way to learn about the activities of the various committees and PBA.

Saturday morning is reserved for the one or two remaining committee or council meetings. Regional caucus meetings take place a half hour prior to the board meeting, which is typically scheduled to begin at 10 a.m.

*To RSVP to committee meetings and events, check your inbox for email reminders from PBA. Links to register will be posted on the website and in our Exec-Connect and TradeSecrets eNewsletters.

How to Get Something Considered (Regional, Committee, Board floor): Motions can be made by the Senior Officers and Executive Committee and on the Board floor by any committee, council or member. They then go through the regional process for discussion followed by discussion and approval at the next Board meeting.

How Board Members are selected: Each Affiliated Local Association shall elect, according to its own bylaws, State Directors based on the number of builder members as of October 31 of each year, except for a newly-affiliated local association, whose initial Directors shall be based on the membership as of the date of affiliation in accordance with the following schedule:

<tr>
<th>BUILDER MEMBERS</th>

<td>Four</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>126 to 175</td>
<td>Five</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>Six</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Life Directors: The Board of Directors may elect members of this Association as Life Directors, provided they are so recommended by the Affiliated Association of which he or she is a member; and provided they shall have personally attended two or more meetings of the Board of Directors per year as a voting member for ten or more years, of which years need not be consecutive. Upon their election, they shall have the right to vote, subject to the disqualification provisions of Section 12 of the PBA Bylaws, provided they attend at least one of the two preceding regularly scheduled meetings of the Board.

Further details regarding the Board of Directors can be found in the Pennsylvania Builders Association Bylaws.
Member Benefits

The PBA experience is different for all members, but most members find one or more of the following a rewarding part of their membership:

Advocacy and Legislative Efforts: PBA’s government affairs division works diligently to guard against misguided legislation and excessive regulations. The result is a better business environment for homebuilders, remodelers and others in the industry in PA.

Access to Expert Resources: We have experts on staff to provide technical advice to help solve your problems. As a PBA member, you get immediate access to experts in building codes, regulatory issues, green building, technology and public relations.

Networking Opportunities: Many members tell us that networking is a primary reason for joining. As a PBA member, you can connect with industry colleagues to share information and make important business contacts.

Credibility: Your PBA membership sets you apart and identifies you as an industry professional. We encourage you to use our logo and build confidence with your peers, customers and the community you care about and do business in.

Health Insurance: Our members have access to fully insured group and individual health insurance, dental and vision benefits, life insurance, AD&D and disability through Pennsylvania Builders Insurance Program. Members also enjoy dedicated service with a hotline for premium member service.

Workers’ Compensation Program: McConkey & Co provides PBA members with competitive rates, better claim management and better options for paying premiums. Contact Ryan Dixson at 717.505.3179 or rdixon@ekmconkey.com

PA One Call Program: When builders use the PA One Call service before digging for the first time each year, they normally pay a $125 fee. For PBA members, that cost is waived. A $125 savings! Contact Livvy at PBA at 717.730.4380 or lharmon@pabuilders.org

Centricity: Centricity offers new home warranty plans. Contact John Lashley at 800.345.6282, ext. 4796.

Member Rebate Program for Builders: Group purchasing discounts on items you already buy from suppliers like Pittsburgh Paints, Heat & Glo, Delta and more. Over 70% of the Builders & Remodelers who participated last year received back in rebates more than they paid in annual dues to the Association! Contact Richard Robinson at 866.849.8400 or info@hbarebates.com

National Purchasing Partners: This group purchasing program negotiates significantly discounted rates on many national products and services, including Verizon Wireless, Staples Office Products, Sherwin Williams, Airgas and more.
PSECU Credit Union Membership: PBA members are eligible for membership in the state’s largest credit union. Non-profit and member owned, PSECU offers no or low-fee services that will put more money in your pocket. Visit psecu.com for more info.

Sample Contracts: Our members have access to a model building contract, plus contracts for home improvement contractors that meet the requirements of the state home improvement contractor registration law. A savings of time and expense!

BDX (Builders Digital Experience): List homes for free online on two leading new home websites, NewHomeSource.com and MoveNewHomes.com. To sign up, go to thebdx.com/Free.

Snazzy Traveler: Save on thousands of hotels, cars, cruises, activities and more all year long. Go to www.snazzytraveler.com/PBA for more information.

PBA Buyers Guide: Exclusive, easily accessible, year-round, valuable resource that offers access to a vast network of industry suppliers. Go to www.pabuildersbuyersguide.com.

Educational Opportunities

There are several educational opportunities throughout the year offered either locally or through the NAHB. Below is a list of those programs.

Home Builders University

Train anywhere. Online or DVD. At your own pace.
www.homebuildersuniversity.com

Designation (Certification) Programs

Invest in your professional growth and the success of your business by earning a designation, attending a conference, or simply taking a course or two. The National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) offers dozens of educational courses and seminars especially tailored for your needs as a building professional. These programs focus on practical training for newcomers and veterans alike, with lots of ideas and strategies you can use every day to improve your business and advance your career. NAHB provides education through various local HBA’s as well as during Board of Directors Meetings.

A NAHB Designation says a lot about you. Professional designations offer excellent opportunities to improve your skills, advance your career, and be recognized for your commitment to professional growth. NAHB has the most targeted curriculum, accomplished teachers and widely respected education opportunities in the business. Start getting a designation now so you’ll be ahead of the competition in the future.

Go to www.nahb.org and click on Education & Events.

Seminars Offered at Board Meetings

These vary and will be announced to membership prior to the Board meeting.
